Guide to formatting styles of proceedings under the new Court of Appeal Rules

Beginning on July 18, 2022, when the new Court of Appeal Act and Rules come into force, the style of proceedings for civil matters on all Forms, orders, and reasons for judgment will list appellants first and respondents second.

- The roles of the parties to the appeal in the court below should still be identified in brackets (e.g., John Doe, Appellant (Defendant)).
- The new format applies to all documents filed on or after July 18, 2022 (including Forms, orders, appeal books etc. and amended documents).
- Steps taken to change the format of the style of proceedings in four different examples are provided below.
 - Example 1 – one appellant and one respondent
 - Example 2 – more than one appellant or respondent
 - Example 3 – cross appeal and multiple dockets
 - Example 4 – non-adversarial proceeding in the court below

Example 1: One appellant and one respondent

To set up the new style of proceedings:

1. Reverse the order of the parties so that the appellant is listed first and the respondent is listed second.

Example 2: More than one respondent or appellant

To set up the new style of proceedings:

1. Reverse the order of the parties so that the appellants are listed first and the respondents are listed second.
2. Group multiple appellants and respondents by their role in the court below (e.g. in the example Blue Green and Black Grey are grouped together as appellants who were claimants in the court below, but Pink Yellow is listed separately as an appellant who was a respondent in the court below).
3. Do not change the order of appellants or respondents who had different roles in the court below (e.g. in the example, Pink Yellow is still the first named appellant, followed by Blue Green and Black Grey).
4. Ensure that the roles of the parties in the court below are still identified in brackets (e.g. Pink Yellow, Appellant (Respondent)).

Example 3: Cross appeal and multiple dockets

To set up the new style of proceedings:

1. List the style of proceedings for each docket in order of the appeal docket number (no change)
2. For each appeal docket
 - a. List the appellant(s) first and the respondent(s) second.
 - b. Group the appellant(s) and respondent(s) by their role in the court below (e.g. in the example, Shape and Circle are grouped together as respondents who were plaintiffs in the court below, followed by the HMQ group who were defendants in the court below).
 - c. If there is more than one appellant or more than one respondent grouped together, do not change the order that they are listed (e.g. in the example below, Shape and Circle are still listed in the same order and are still the first named group of respondents in the new style of proceedings).
3. Identify the roles of the parties on the cross appeal (e.g. Respondents/Appellants on Cross Appeal (Plaintiffs)) (no change).
4. Identify the roles of the parties in the court below in brackets e.g. Respondents/Appellants on Cross Appeal (Plaintiffs) (no change).
