Notice to the Profession from the Supreme Court Rules Revision Committee

RE: REPEAL OF RULE 67- FAX FILING RULE JULY 2, 2009

The purpose of this Notice is to draw to the attention of the Profession that Rule 67, the fax filing rule, is presently scheduled to be repealed on July 2, 2009. Should the rule be extended beyond July 2, 2009, notification of that extension will be provided.

Currently, Rule 67 permits fax filing of documents in proceedings in the Chilliwack, Cranbrook, Dawson Creek, Kamloops, Kelowna, Nelson, Penticton, Prince George, Rossland, Salmon Arm, Smithers, Terrace, Vernon and Williams Lake registries of the court. Unless the rule is extended beyond July 2, 2009, it will not be possible to commence proceedings by fax filing in any these registries after July 2, 2009. The Rules Revision Committee considers it necessary to alert the Profession accordingly.

The Honourable Mr. Justice Macaulay

April 14, 2009

Chair, Rules Revision Committee
