Rescission of Practice Direction 54

Standard Directions for Appeals from Decisions of Masters, Registrars or Special Referees pursuant to Civil Rule 23-6(8) and Family Rule 22-7(8)

Effective July 1, 2019, Rule 23-6 of the Supreme Court Civil Rules and Rule 22-7 of the Supreme Court Family Rules were amended to provide for the conduct of an appeal from an order of a decision of a Master, Registrar or Special Referee.

These amendments replace the process set out in Practice Direction 54 – Standard Directions for Appeals from Decisions of Masters, Registrars or Special Referees pursuant to Civil Rule 23-6(8) and Family Rule 22-7(8).

Accordingly, Practice Direction 54 is rescinded.

Dated October 28, 2020 at Vancouver, British Columbia

By Direction of Chief Justice Christopher E. Hinkson
Supreme Court of British Columbia
