

Vancouver Registry

No. VA_____W

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

BETWEEN:

Rex

v.

_____ (Accused)

CRIMINAL CODE, SECTION 525 - DETENTION REVIEW

WAIVER FORM

WAIVER

The accused _____ (print name of accused person) understands that they are entitled to have their continuing detention in custody reviewed by a Justice of the Supreme Court of British Columbia; they are entitled to be personally present when the Court conducts the review; and by instructing counsel to deliver a waiver they are giving up their right to have their continuing detention in custody reviewed under s. 525 of the Criminal Code for this application.

I, _____ (print name of counsel for accused) confirm that I am counsel for the accused. I confirm that I have reviewed the relevant information and material regarding the circumstances of the accused's present detention. I further confirm that I have provided advice to the accused regarding their right to a detention review under s. 525 of the Criminal Code, including the nature of the right and consequences of a waiver, and the accused waives that right for this application.

Counsel Name (print): _____

Counsel Signature: _____

(cannot be typed)

Date: _____

Submit by email to detention.review@bccourts.ca